REV. JAMES HOUSDEN FROM AUSTRALIA TO SPEAK HERE

The Rt. Rev. James Housden, Bishop of New Castle, New South Wales, Australia, will speak at an Episcopal Laymen's dinner which will be held at Moran's Bay Side Park restaurant, Highway 90, Bay St. Louis, on Friday, September 7, at 7 p. m. Bishop Housden will preach at Christ Church, Bay St. Louis on Sunday, September 8, at 10 a. m.

The Rt. Rev. James Housden was born in Birmingham, England, but his family migrated to Australia when he was nine. After schooling in Melbourne and qualifying as a teacher, he offered himself for ordination. He then studied at the University of Queensland where he received First Class Honors in Philosophy and later in Theology.

He then spent six years in the Diocese of Carpentaria, coming into contact with the primitive Australian aborigines. During this time he met and married Moira Hennessey. They have three children, two of them married, and three grandchildren.

After this missionary work, Bishop Housden returned to the primary parish work in Queensland and in Melbourne and was a Chaplain to the Army during the second World War.

In 1947 James Housden was elected Bishop of Rockhampton, a scattered missionary Diocese of 250,000 square miles and only 12 parish areas, one of them alone being as large as England. It was in this capacity that Bishop Housden visited the United States in 1954 after the Anglican Congress in Minneapolis.

While traveling to the Lambeth Conference in 1958, Bishop Housden was elected Bishop of Newcastle. Newcastle is the center of the coal industry in Australia, as it is located upon extensive coal fields, and the city has a population of more than 200,000.

NASA ANNOUNCES GE TO FURNISH SERVICE TO MTO ONE YEAR

GAINESVILLE, Miss. - The National Aeronautics and Space Administration announced today that it has completed negotiations with the General Electric Company to provide support services at Mississippi Test Operations for one year (July 1, 1963-June 30, 1964) at a cost of $2,393,500. This work will be directed by the Marshall Space Flight Center.

G. E. will receive an additional $110,000 for planning and test support services at the installation during a 90 day period beginning June 28, 1963. Most of the planning work is being done at the Marshall Center.

G. E. was selected by NASA in February, 1962 to support NASA's Manned Lunar Landing Program in the systems, integration, checkout and reliability area.

In April, 1963, NASA announced that it also would negotiate with the G. E. company to provide support services at MTO as part of the firm's overall participation in Project Apollo.

MTO, now under construction on a 13,500 acre tract in Hancock County, Miss., will be used for static firing launch vehicle stages and engines. The facility will receive Saturn stages assembled at NASA's Michoud operations in New Orleans and other points. They will be test fired before shipment to NASA's Merritt Island, Fla., launch area for flight mission. Actual test operations at MTO will be conducted by various stage and engine contractors under the direction of MSFC.

The support effort provided by G. E. will include: (1) plant support, such things as utility, personnel transportation, plant security, fire protection, medical facilities, plant maintenance, production and graphic arts and control and command systems, support service for data acquisition and handling, engineering services, a component service facility and shop and field service.

During the 90 day planning period, G. E. employees are working with the Marshall Center's MTO group. They will become familiar with the plans for the new test site, extending G. E. support planning and providing engineering support to the local group.

At peak operations after 1966, the G. E. support effort at MTO will require some 1,200 to 1,500 employees. According to current estimates, a total of approximately 3,000 employees of various contracting firms along with about 700 NASA people will be working at MTO within a few years. G. E. is expected to award subcontracts to firms in the MTO area for some of the plant services.

Down The Sports Trail

BY MICHAEL LANG

Trapani's seemed to have made up for their finishing in fourth place in the play-offs last week by taking the final tourney of the softball season Sunday by defeating Industrial 5-3. It was a hot day for the tournament and hot on the playing field as well. As Trap put it the other day, third base was still "Strong" held down by Mike. Though some teams were handicapped in the tournament they were all very fine games. Of the most handicapped was the CYO who were missing several good players, but still played a fine game against Kramky's.

There's an old expression "like father, like son" which we hear in a lot of cases. Well I heard one the other day which must be repeated.

The first time he had ever pitched and the first time he pitched for Trapani's, Claude Yarborough Jr., came up with a perfect season that year. That's father, now here's the son about years later, Claude, Jr., who on Aug. 31 pitched a perfect game against Industrial Elec. For those that are not ball fans or do not know what a perfect game is, it is like this, there were no runs, no hits, walks, errors, no nothing to score the game in any way. It is truly a remarkable feat to be able to do this and is worth repeating. Besides pitching a perfect game, Claude hit a home run along with Jackie Strong and Perry Stevens. The score of the game was 7-Up 13, Industrial Elec. 0. 7-Up also won the tournament that day at Elwood Memorial Park. I never saw Claude in action but I'll bet he has one heck of a pitching arm.

The Dirt Dobber's bowling team came up as the victors of the summer league in Picayune this past week. Five weeks before the Dirt Dobbers were seven games back before the end of league play, but put on a very good finish to win the league title by three games. Members of the team are Buck Kimball, Al Lambka, Red Reinike, Vee Bernond, Harry Favre and Hover Garriet.

The Bay-Waveland Yacht Club emerged victoriously to win the 44th annual Lipton Cup series Monday at Lake Pontchartrain. Skippers for the races were Chuck Breath who started in the first race and was in second position but got a bad break and had to drop back to finish seventh. Bill Reeves started in the second race and finished second. Harry Chapman started in the third race and finished second also. Starting the CLAUDE YARBOROUGH, JR., who pitched a perfect baseball game for 7-Up against Industrial Electric on August 31. 7-Up won the game 13-0.

WAVELAND NEWS

MRS. BEVERLY ZIMMERMAN

PHONE HO-7-4584

WAVELAND, MISS.

Labor Day was the usual busy one with many visitors enjoying the day. The Town was filled to capacity and everyone had a complete day of fun and relaxation.

It's back to school for the youngsters, teenagers and college students. Many of the young girls and boys will begin their freshman college year, which will be a new adjustment for them and also for mom and dad.

The pecan crop should be plentiful this year. Almost every limb on the trees are bent and straining under the weight they carry.

The weight of the grafted pecans on the tree in the yard of Mr. and Mrs. John Munch has caused the limb to split.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Carrio of Baton Rouge were over Tuesday visiting relatives.

Mrs. Hazel Scrimshaw and C. O. Dufour had the pleasure of a visit from their sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Leeche and daughter, Mary Helen about a week ago.

They enjoyed the weekend immensely grabbing and fishing from the Scrimshaw pier.

Mrs. White of New Orleans spent the day here Tuesday.

Dr. and Mrs. LaNasa and daughters who were over most of the fourth race was Don Chamberlain who finished sixth. Crew members were Alfred Watts, John Dupaquier, Papa Thomson, Bob Boh, Jack Gordon, Walter Chamberlain, and Dick Reeves, who was team captain.

The Bay-Waveland Yacht Club put on a very excellent showing of Yachting as in the past. Just a few months ago the Bay-Waveland Yacht Club won the Junior Lipton Cup Series. Now they are winners of the Senior and Junior Lipton Cup series which goes to prove that it takes a little bit more than luck.

Points for the clubs are as follows: Bay-Waveland, 39 points, first place; Pass Christian 36 1/2 points, second place; Gulfport, 34 points, third place; Biloxi, 33 1/2 points fourth place. From the way it appears from the preceding the Gulf Coast made a very excellent showing leaving the Louisiana teams with nothing but salt spray in their faces. Southern was one, they placed 7th with 28 1/2 points.

Dupas fans better get your boat or plane tickets if you want to see Ralph fight. He's headed for Italy to defend his Junior Middle-weight championship. Maybe He'll be able to make a little money this time.

From all appearances everyone had a nice holiday weekend. There was a lot of night fishing along Jackson Ridge last weekend. I didn't get any reports but I am sure that the fish didn't know it was a holiday.

This will be the last column of DOWN THE SPORTS TRAIL as Uncle Sam has me now. I want to say it has been a pleasure and experience to have had the pleasure of doing it. Not everyone has agreed with me at times but the world is not perfect. So if I pinched anybody's toes, consider this my apology.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank all our friends and neighbors, who were so kind during the illness of our sister, Geraldine Gilbert, also for the notes of sympathy and condolences after her death. Special thanks to Rev. Father Francis Wade for conducting the services.

NASA
News..

HUNTSVILLE, Ala.—A hangar-type building that will play a major role in the preparation of Saturn launch vehicles for manned flight to the moon will be built at the NASA-Marshall Space Flight Center here in the near future.

Called a Saturn components and stage acceptance building, the structure will be used as the receiving and inspection point for launch vehicle stages, as well as such components as tank bulkheads, sheet metal, engines, tank segments and thrust structures. Certain types of testing relative to acceptance will also be performed in the structure.

The building will be erected under a $858,858 contract awarded last week to C & B Construction Co., Memphis, Tenn. It will be occupied by the MSFC Quality Assurance Division.

The structure will have a "high-bay" area with a ceiling 40 feet high. The floor area will be about 30,000 square feet.

The building will have a structural steel framework with corrugated cement asbestos siding and will be 200 feet long and 150 feet wide. The reinforced concrete floor will be made to withstand wheel loads of 20,000 pounds.

Low bay areas will house laboratories and equipment. Typical operations to be performed in the small laboratories are oil filtration, metrology and gauge calibration and repair.

C & B Construction will build the structure in a 200 acre area west of the Manufacturing Engineering Division. NASA-MSFC recently acquired the building site in a land transfer from the Army.

HUNTSVILLE, Ala.—A top priority program is being launched at the Marshall Space Flight Center to impress upon each employee the fact that the success of a manned landing and space exploration depends on the quality of his work.

Dr. Werner von Braun, Director of MSFC, said the "risk of human error is a recognized pitfall." He said the "first step is to realize the importance of the program and then minimize the risk by getting every employee to concentrate on doing his best possible job."

Marshall Center employees just started work on the giant Saturn V rocket which will be used to carry astronauts to the moon. Dr. Preston T. Farish of the Saturn Systems Office, said special decals, tags or stamps will be placed on all components of rockets to be flown by astronauts, as a constant quality reminder to all employees.

Dr. Farish, who will direct the Manned Space Flight Awareness program at the Marshall Center, its Michoud Operations in New Orleans and the Mississippi Test Operations, said other features of the program will include posters, films and visits by astronauts at assembly sites.

Dr. Farish said the program also applies to MSFC major contractors and sub-contractors. Commenting on the program, Dr. Farish said "the success of the program lies in making each space worker aware of the importance of his effort in the overall task, regardless of whether it seems important to the final flight."

Thus, the program will concentrate heavily on Marshall's contractors and suppliers of components to be used in the manned space flight rockets. "With an astronaut's life at stake there can be no near successes," Dr. Farish added. "We must take every step to insure a complete success."

The rocket center already has an active quality assurance program here. Individual rocket components are checked out; the rocket is assembled and checked again, and it is static fired twice and re-checked before being shipped to Cape Canaveral for launch.

As a result, the four Saturn I rockets launched so far have made perfect flights.

This planned space flight awareness program will bring about a "super" quality control, stimulated by the awareness of each individual that he controls the destiny of each space flight.

Indiscriminate disposal of industrial waste has been cited as a major cause of water pollution, a growing problem throughout the United States.

The chemical disposal well is 6,650 feet deep - more than 5,000 feet beneath the deepest fresh water-bearing subsurface formation at the Michoud site. As an added precaution, the well was drilled nearly 2,000 feet deeper than the depth recommended in a geological survey of the Michoud area.

Geologists estimate that it will take about 50 years for the chemical waste - injected into the well at the rate planned - to contaminate a one-mile area of the sand formation at the depth of the well. At this rate, it would be several hundred years before the chemical waste could enter the Gulf of Mexico. By this time, the chemicals, which must filter through the porous sand strata, will be neutralized and rendered harmless.

When the system is placed in operation in October, chemical waste will be piped from various locations in the Michoud Operations' manufacturing building into a central plant collection pond. From there, the fluids will be channeled to the well and injected under pressure to the 6,650-foot deep disposal strata. Proper casing and cementing of the well will insure against possible seepage of the chemicals as they are pumped down through fresh water-bearing formation.

STUDY INDICATES CHANGE NEEDED IN PHOSPHORUS TEST

STATE COLLEGE—The chemical method now used throughout the nation to evaluate phosphorus in fertilizers is not the best one available and farmers are losing heavily because some of the plant food they buy is not as good as the test indicates.

These are the conclusions reached after the Mississippi Agricultural Experiment Station conducted 49 field tests with cotton, corn, soybeans, wheat for grain, and wheat for forage. The tests continued over 5 years and were made at four locations.

Dr. Bill Wright, Dr. J. D. Lancaster, and Mr. J. L. Anthony made the study in cooperation with the Tennessee Valley Au-

GILBERT DEATH
IN NEW ORLEANS

Miss Geraldine Gilbert, 23, daughter of the late Oswald and Geraldine Gilbert, died at 5:30 p. m. Thursday in a New Orleans hospital.

A native and life-long resident of Bay St. Louis, she is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Catherine Lahm and Mrs. Dorothy Labat, both of Bay St. Louis; and three brothers, Anthony Gilbert, Bay St. Louis; Joseph Gilbert, Philadelphia, and Leonard Gilbert, Handsboro.

Funeral services were held from the Imperial Funeral Home at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon with religious rites at St. Rose de Lima Catholic Church, with the Rev. John Wade, pastor, officiating. Interment was in St. Mary's Cemetery.

METHODIST WSCS
MEETING HELD

The monthly meeting of the Womens Society of Christian Service was held last Wednesday morning at the Methodist Church with Mrs. W. W. James, president, giving the opening prayer.

Mrs. James announced the sub-district meeting will be held in Wiggins September 12.

The Morning Circle has scheduled its first meeting of the season for September 11, at the home of Mrs. J. W. Clark and the Night Circle will have its first meeting September 3 at the home of Mrs. Billy McLain.

Miss Diane Dickerson, local youth director during the summer months, gave a summary of her work. Miss Dickerson will return next week to Millsaps College, Jackson, where she is a senior.

Mrs. Charles Lampa and Mrs. Rachel Norgress presented the program on missions with Mrs. Lampa speaking on American deaconess and Mrs. Norgress on foreign missionaries.

thority. They said results show clearly that the factors studied degree of ammoniation was most important in influencing the economic effectiveness of the phosphorus in ordinary superphosphate and that excessive ammoniation drastically reduced this effectiveness. They also said:

"Comparisons of the crop-producing value revealed by these experiments with the chemical analyses used for control purposes in the United States and other countries showed that the method now in use in the United States does not reflect the true agronomic value of ammoniated ordinary superphosphate in mixed fertilizers and does not provide a suitable basis for quality control."

On the other hand a close relationship was found between the agronomic effectiveness of the fertilizer as well as the amount of available phosphorus extracted by an alkaline ammonium citrate method.

As an illustration of the loss to the nation's farmers, the researchers made estimates for Mississippi. In this State 147,250 tons of 6-8-8 were sold in a recent year and 52 per cent of the phosphorus in this fertilizer was not effective. At 10 cents per pound, this amounts to $1,225,200 spent for ineffective phosphorus in one year for this one grade of fertilizer. Since most high analysis fertilizers are not formulated with ordinary superphosphate users of the fertilizers were affected only slightly.

Solution to the problem, say these scientists, is the adoption of a more definitive chemical test by the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists or legislative action to require a guarantee of water-soluble phosphorus in fertilizers.

Labor Day probably wound up a lot of fishing for adults and young folks alike.

The youngsters return to school and parents close their homes on the beach and return to their homes in New Orleans after a happy summer on the Gulf Coast.

Seems like more young folks took to fishing and boating this summer than in past years. Crabbing and floundering was indulged in and skiing took a top spot in sports.

One enthusiastic skier was David Carter who shared his new motor and boat with friends.

Fishing continues about the same with low tides still the order of the day. Catches of green trout came in on all sides and salt water fishing is on the better side. Hard crab fishing is still good and crabs are in the larger bracket. Reports on flounders is good. They are being caught night and day. With the moon becoming brighter, floundering should slow up a bit.

Judge Rene Vlosca reports

catching plenty of white trout and blue crabs up Jordan River. The judge caught a 5 pound and a 4 pound red fish last week off the Yacht Club pier. He specializes in catching red fish and is hard to beat.

Wade R. Embrey and his guest Bill Hattox of Baton Rouge, La., reports that they haven't gotten much fish but they have been catching plenty of hard crabs. Wade loves his fishing and never misses a chance to go.

Was nice to see Dr. Larry LeBon the other day. Doc was telling us of his trip to Destin, Fla., where he caught a 21 pound King mackerel and some Bonitos. He enjoys most any kind of fishing and usually gets his share.

The shrimp season is now open, small catches are being made by trawling boats and individual shrimpers. Among those having live shrimp for bait is Alfred Cospehich at Cospehich's Ship Yard out Main Street. Cross Highway 90 at Main Street turn right about a mile from highway, look for sign.

Was sorry to hear of the death of William (Bill) Bertucci Saturday. Bill was an old timer and had many friends here about.

Joe Momony was over for a few days, and according to him caught some big hard crabs. Eating them was a real treat he said.

The Labor Day Tourney at Pass Isles Golf Club held Monday for both ladies and gentlemen was an enjoyable event. Team handicap on three best ball basis. Players were mixed or matched. Free eats and beer were furnished.

Claude Yarborough won a trophy for being the best pitcher on the Little League, and also the most valuable pitcher trophy, for pitching a perfect game in the Baptist Youth Organization tourney held in Waveland last Saturday.

A tribute to Chester P. Claudino Since his boyhood, Scouting has had an important role in the life of Chester P. Claudino who, until his death on August 6th was Chairman of the Beauregard District in New Orleans of which troops of Bay St. Louis are affiliated. Practically all of the honors which Claudino has received have been won on a faithful leader had been won by Chester, as he was affectionately known by all of his friends. The Eagle Badge, Silver Beaver, Wood Badge, all showed the results of his hard work on scouting. He was an important role in scouting and with his fellow scouts. All of his friends will miss him and his work for the boys. Claudino was well known in Bay St. Louis, visiting here frequently.

A 191 pound salmon switched roles with an angler, George H. Nichols, recently and killed him while playing it plunged into the river. Wye. His wife saw him floating down the stream with the rod still clutched in his hand. Police later recovered the body. Nichols had a death grip on the rod and at the end of the line was the salmon - still hooked. New Orleans Times-Picayune.

A Bay St. Louis Boy Scout Division meeting will be held Monday, Sept. 26, 7:30 p. m. at the R. E. A. building. All scouts are urged to attend.

Election decided, David Nash and Willie Bedford of Meadville, Miss., campaigned strong and hard. Both wound up with 439 votes. They agreed to toss a coin. Bedford is now the new Constable. Real sports, I'd say.

Drift fishing can be a lot of fun especially when catching crappies. Although the two species of crappies, black and white, have more than 57 different names throughout their range, there is common agreement on one point - it is the still-fisherman's favorite! And as all veteran crappie fishermen know, the two best places to find crappies are around shore cover, such as bushes, weeds, and brush piles; also just drifting in open water, letting the wind work for you.

Minnows, of course, on a fine wire hook, are the best bait for drift fishing. One of the tricks is to find at what depth the crappies are feeding.

You do this with an adjustable bobber, starting at one foot deep, and trying it right on down to the bottom, about a foot deeper each adjustment. But when those crappies are around brush pile, and other shore cover, try this for taking a mess without spooking them. Some crappies were caught up

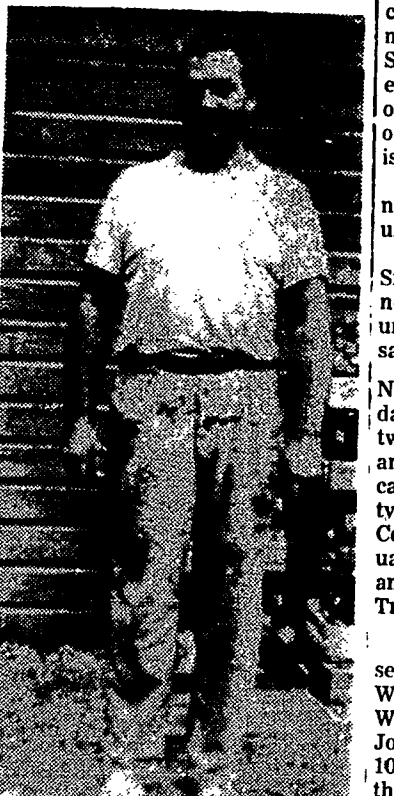

Pearl River way last week. Still fishing for crappies is good too.

The Silver King Tarpon is Monarch of all game fish in our humble opinion. No fish will hit as explosively, leap as mightily, fight as doggedly or succumb as nobly as tarpon. Among those going after these big ones are August Rauxet and son Nicky and Dr. Beek at Chandeller Island. Better have good tackle if you go after these monsters.

A number of catches of perch have been made by fishermen who use regular earth worms. Night crawlers as they are called, or "at least" for perch, green trout, bream and catfish. If you don't know it, the worms are usually found in large numbers in leaf mold, under rotten boards, etc., and in most damp places. They can be bought at most tackle dealers.

It's a good idea when salt water fishing to watch the sea gulls and other birds as they move from place to place, it usually indicates that shrimp and other fish food are nearby. Naturally the fish will be where there is live bait.

When fly fishing, make logs, weeds and docks the objects of your popping bugs and surface plugs. Green trout especially seek these places for two reasons, one, to catch bugs, mosquito hawks, etc., and to get protection from gars. Never underestimate fly fishing, they are good places to bring out that "Old Ugly" you have been looking for.

LAWRENCE JACOBI
Lawrence is one of our local bakers and fishermen. His time is limited but he manages to go fishing a little. Fly fishing is his favorite pastime but he likes any kind of fishing and usually gets his share of salt water fish also. He has a nice speed hull and uses it to good advantage.

EXPRESS THANKS

In an effort to bolster the quarterback weakness Murphy has shifted Curtis Matherne, an end from last year, to the key position in hopes of getting an offense. Curtis is a two-year letterman in the line.

Three other members of the squad, Charles "Dusty" Rhodes, a halfback, Howard Robichaux, and Richard Stinson, tackles are wearers of two stripes on the award sweater.

Nice Things Happen to Systematic Savers
Ever notice how it is with some families? They always seem to have the money to go off on the most exciting vacation trips, buy and furnish the nicest homes, give their children the best educations. Often the answer is not to be found in the size of their income, but in what they DO with it! By systematically saving part of it, they manage to have "what it takes" to enjoy the best things of life. If they save here (as many do) where their money earns interest.

Plant a crop in deep, rich soil and you plant a crop that will flourish.

Something gives it life. Sun and rain, yes, and certainly rich, abundant soil . . . and yet, something more, something that gives it the ability to seek and use strength.

Someone gives US life . . . nourishing food, warm comfortable shelter, these help certainly. But still . . . something else. Our souls reach far below the surface of everyday existence to find our deeper faith in God's wisdom and power.

We place ourselves at His mercy. We seek Him often in prayer and worship, and "times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord."

Having found this fountain of faith, like the harvest, we point ever heavenward to share with others our discovery.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL - ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
